Long Ash Lancer

So there we were all waiting for the priapic and Wondrous Wobbly to lay a truly spectacular Hash trail as a befitting swansong to his stupendous and wholly memorable time in office as the Grand Master. And you know what? We're still waiting!

While eagerly and perhaps rather anxiously waiting (due to thinking that we were in for a beating) a few nervously looked around trying to distract themselves from thoughts of the shiggy and hill climbing fest likely to be ahead. Idle chat and meanderings of the mind led some to consider words to describe Streaky's new pelisse, "Affordable", sprang to mind.

Called to arms, His Knob-ness announced the format of the Hash and who should do what, where and when. Being a Doctor and therefore possess the ability to laugh at the misfortunes of others, he chuckled devilishly as we set off along the Long Ash plains.

I've got nothing against the Chinese.
Don't get me Wong.

Breathless, we plodded, tripped and trundled toward the abyss ever hopeful of a reprieve but it never came. Around and around we went, then Down, Down, Down we galloped waiting for the Up, Up, Up. Clever stuff! And all to go across the as yet unfinished bridge over the River Kwai – an awesome sight. We were both impressed and tricked I guess by all those twists and turns, switchbacks; and slips, trips and falls. Hah! But not clever enough for this Scribe to pick up a few morsels of scam!

For a short while, a Hash duenna was the main topic of conversation. Apparently nice but boring - she could bore the arse-hole in a wooden horse (and I mean that lovingly) – she was bought a little dog, but over time the dog stopped responding to her whistle due to an excess of hair in its ears. It was suggested to buy some hair removal cream from the chemist. Before she could explain, the chemist said, "If you're using it on your legs, plenty of soap and water because it's caustic. If it's for the armpits more soap and water. And if you're using it on your face Madam, really you better wash it off quick." She said, "Actually it's for my Schnauzer." He said, "In that case, don't ride a bike for a fortnight."

Crime in multi-storey car parks. That is wrong on so many different levels.

So there was plenty of other gossip to catch up on too of course...

Dodo rang an Airfix Model shop and asked, "Do you have a model of an Italian cruise liner in stock?" "Yes", said the shop owner. "Brilliant! Can you put it on one side for me please?"

Meanwhile Rabbit has recently been depressed enough to call the Samaritans, they diverted his call to a centre in Pakistan. He said he was suicidal. They got all excited and asked if he could drive a truck!

Catching up with the fervid Hasher, Cabin Boy I learnt he has come up with a brilliant plan for wedded bliss! To avoid the toilet seat Up/Down argument, he uses the sink!

Dropping back a few yards, t'was interesting to note that Turbo was in a band called The Prevention because they hoped people would say they were better than The Cure.

Distressingly, Erectus a noted eleemosynary has dropped out of his Communism Class because of lousy Marx. Never mind he's reading loads of other educational books. His particular favourite at the moment is about anti-gravity. It's impossible to put down.

Farm Watch

My girlfriend (looking more like a battledore every day) and I went to an agricultural show and one of the first exhibits we stopped at was the breeding bulls. We went up to the first pen and there was a sign attached that said,

'THIS BULL MATED 50 TIMES LAST YEAR'

My GF playfully nudged me in the ribsSmiled and said, "He mated 50 times last year, that's almost once a week."

We walked to the second pen which had a sign attached that said,

'THIS BULL MATED 150 TIMES LAST YEAR'

The GF gave me a healthy jab and said, "WOW ~That's more than twice a week!You could learn a lot from him."

We walked to the third pen and it had a sign attached that said,

'THIS BULL MATED 365 TIMES LAST YEAR'

She was so excited that her elbow nearly broke my ribs, and said, 'That's once a day You could REALLY learn something from this one.'

I looked at her and said, 'Go over and ask him if it was with the same cow?'

My condition has been upgraded from critical to stable and I should eventually make a full recovery.

Bin Liner's One Liners...

Windy said, "Why don't women blink during foreplay?" Racey said, "They don't have time".

Hobo said, "Shall we try swapping positions tonight?" Miss said, "That's a good idea - you stand by the stove & sink while I sit on the sofa and do nothing but fart"

Back to the Hash

Vaginal El Pull (anag) was all excited because his name has finally being spelt correctly – that's Rick with a silent P! Meanwhile, he should now surely be known as "The Shortcut Queen" and his Hash total called into doubt due to the lack of evidence of him actually fully completing any at all!?!?!

Tosh Potty was noted to have gone arse over lady bones or perhaps she was just inspecting the ground rather closely. But that wouldn't quite explain why she had a stick up her sygmuffus! Curious indeed!

Equally curious is Tracey's delight with her Dumpy Ones over her Long Big Ones, (so where's Windy then?). Oh by the way, last week he confided in me about being excited resuming sex with Racey again, but quietly asked what a strap-on was?!

T'was noted the wily old buggers conducted some cunning short cuts themselves – though nowhere near Naive Gall Pull's of course. With a sly eye on the Hare and On Home their plan with a tail on could well be called Foxy!

Unfortunately Mayhem's recent skiing trip started poorly and sadly went downhill from there. Oh dear – she's back safe and sound though, which is good news.

THIS IS A FRIGHTENING STATISTIC, MOST PROBABLY ONE OF THE MOST WORRYING IN RECENT YEARS

25% of women in this country are on medication for mental illness.

That's bloody scary.....

It means 75% are running around with no medication at all...!

DOCTOR'S SURGERY:

England doesn't have a kidney bank, but it does have a Liverpool.

Doc Doc, I'm addicted to Twitter, I'm sorry I don't follow you.

To the ON DOWN where VIRGIN GM RUTH bared her GM's (which interestingly Hash Flash declined to photograph – family snaps opportunity) and used Dog Catcher as her Autocue (imaginative indeed).

The Has Beens were called up to thank in front of the merry throng for all their hard work during the past year. The gifts though heartfelt were but little compensation for absolutely everything Charlie, Helen and their family had to do during the last 12 months. It's a tough and time consuming job being the GM and frequently not recognised as being a whole family commitment.

MANY THANKS FOR EVERYTHING GUYS – YOU DID A GREAT JOB!

After some squeals to control the increasingly rowdy mob On Down messages were passed then we all sang to Racey, Dodo and Biff who celebrated a combined age of 3000! All good stuff :-)

We also wished K2 a successful knee operation. Happy paternity we said!

DIPPY'S TOP TIP

Beauty is only a light switch away!

SOME PEOPLE ARE LIKE SLINKIES - NOT REALLY GOOD FOR ANYTHING BUT THEY BRING A SMILE TO YOUR FACE WHEN PUSHED DOWN THE STAIRS.

Cafeteria News

Due to the economy, profiteroles will now be called deficerroles

LOST PROPERTY

Dodo found a Hash Running top, so if you think you're missing one then please get hold of him – politely that is!

For years Doctors and scientists have told us that some food's are good for us only to be told later that they bad for us, and again they tell us that some food's are bad for us, and all the time they've been good for us and there doesn't seem to be much proof either way to suggest what is good or bad until now that is. Garlic is definitely BAD for us

"You Are, What You Eat"

London (Stratford) will be hosting the Olympic Games in 2012.

What you may not know is that many of the famous events, which go to make up this spectacular event, are to be especially altered for 2012. A copy of these changes has been leaked, and is reproduced below:

OPENING CEREMONY

The flame will be ignited by a petrol bomb thrown by a native of the area in the traditional dress of balaclava and shell suit. The flame will be contained in a large overturned police van situated on the roof of the stadium.

THE EVENTS

In previous Olympic Games, East London's competitors have not been particularly successful. In order to redress the balance, some of the events have been altered slightly to the advantage of local athletes.

100 METRES SPRINT

Competitors will have to hold a DVD player and microwave oven (one in each arm) and on the sound of the starting pistol, a police dog will be released from a cage 10 yards behind the athletes.

110 METRES HURDLES

As above but with added obstacles (i.e. car bonnets, hedges, garden fences, walls etc)

HAMMER

Competitors in this event may choose the type of hammer they wish to use (claw, sledge etc) the winner will be the one who can cause the most physical damage within three attempts.

FENCING

Entrants will be asked to dispose of as many stolen goods as possible in 5 minutes.

SHOOTING

A strong challenge is expected from local men in this event. The first target will be a moving police van. In the second round, competitors will aim at a post office clerk, bank teller or Securicor-style wages deliveryman. The traditional .22 rifle has been replaced in this event by a choice of either a Browning automatic handgun or sawn-off 12-bore shotgun.

BOXING

Entry to the boxing will be restricted to husband and wife teams, and will take place on a Friday night. The husband will be given 15 pints of lager while the wife will be told not to make him any tea when he gets home. The bout will then commence.

CYCLING TIME TRIALS

Competitors will be asked to break into the University bike shed and take an expensive mountain bike owned by some mummy's boy on his first trip away from home. All against the clock.

CYCLING PURSUIT

As above, but the bike will be owned by a visiting member of the Australian rugby team, who will witness the theft.

MODERN PENTATHLON

Amended to include mugging, breaking and entering, flashing, joyriding and arson.

SWIMMING EVENTS

All waterways are currently being tested for toxicity levels, once one is found that can support human life, swimming events will be organised, please note that the Synchronised Swimming event for this year will comprise of dropping acid and watching all the funky ripples on the pool, the specific musical support to this event will be provided by "The Verve."

THE MARATHON

A safe route has yet to be decided.

MEN'S 50KM WALK

Unfortunately this will have to be cancelled as the police cannot guarantee the safety of anyone walking the streets of East London, especially anyone that appears to be... mincing

THE CLOSING CEREMONY

Entertainment will include formation rave dancing by members of the Stratford Health in the Community anti-drug campaigners, synchronised rock throwing, and music by the Ilford community choir. The flame will be extinguished by police riot water cannon following the inevitable pitch invasion by confused West Ham organised hooliganism club. The stadium itself will then be boarded up before the local athletes break into it and remove all the copper piping and the central heating boiler.

Closing news: In a warm-up 100 metres event a Muslim has been shot. Police don't think it's race related.
