The Battle of the Shiggy

I was going to theme this week's hash mag on sailors, The Village People and Oh! What a gay day, but Lord Piston Broke Kitchener and General Scupper Sucker Haig managed to find more mud than The Somme, Ypres and Verdun squished together. Piston Broke declared that this was the bestest ever hash he had set, (i.e. it was his first), at the same time as doing some finger pointing, declaring 'Your Hash Needs You To Get Muddy'.

Corporal Dildo Baggins was clearly in his element. Have you seen his feet? His plates of meat are truly stupendous. Very, very wide and very, very hairy. Go and have a look at his feet NOW!! He most certainly is a Hobbit.

Captain Luffly, like any good leader, was seen urging the troops over the top and then retiring to the pub whilst all the muck and bullets were flying. Other, dissenters and conscientious objectors included Lieutenant Nipple Deep (suffering from Man Flu, so it must have been serious), Private, 1st class, Stammer (gangrene of the elbow) and Lance Corporal Barney Trubble (walking wounded). Each was awarded the White Feather Award for cowardice in the face of the enemy (Stannary Hash).

New troops thrown into the front line were Privates Laura, Clive and Jan. Jan claimed to be the first back from the front line, in which case a severe attack of short cutting must have resulted. The other result is that his Hash nickname could well be Cheetah.

Sergeant Major Ernie was clearly suffering from shell shock. Asked what had happened to him in on the hash, the only coherent word he could utter was Nnnaaaaagghhhh! Out in the field Old Lags Colonel Biff and Major Hurricane were discussing previous campaigns in the Shaugh Prior theatre. Chelsea Pensioner, Fruit & Nut was a recurrent theme. Old memories of infamous, very long night time patrols, and being lost were discussed ad nauseum.

In the latter part of the evening an uneasy sort of peace broke out as a certain amount of friendly fraternizing with the enemy was observed. Oberleutnant Fiddler and Obergruppenfeurer Tenzing My Buttocks were seen trying to organise a football match between the two warring factions in No Mans Land.

Mentioned in dispatches: Private Prat in the Hat for annoying our Leader.
Sub-Lieutenant Spike (RN) for taking it up the arse (unless it's cool).
Captains Krakow & Hamster Bollocks (retired) for their unhashmanship.
Sergeants DoDo and Von Trapp for having a picnic in the face of enemy fire.
