

Grand Master
Ruth Luff (Luffly)

Joint Masters
Dave Sykes (Scrotey)

Jon Watson (Dogcatcher)

Scribe Master
Mick Peach (Bumsen Burner)

Hasherdabber
Jack Southward (Penny Farting)

Hash Horn
Lee Renshaw (Hornblower)

Chamber Pots
Steve Darbyshire (Do Do)

Judith Nash (Gnasher)

On Sec
Jane Colwill (Plain Jane)

Hash Cash
John McGurk (Nipple Deep)

Hare Master
Ruth Arkle (Mayhem)

Hash Flash
Ann Marcer (K2)

Cross Dresser
Stirling Way (Spike)

Life Pee'er
Angus Colville
Hereditary Pee'ers

Chris Laurence-King (Bloodnock)

Sara Laurence-King (Shortcut)

Simon Trehane (Trehanrehan)

Email: tvh3@blueyonder.co.uk

Web: www.tvh3.co.uk

Next Run No: 1683

Date: 29/10/2012

Start: Norsworthy Bridge

On Down: TBC

Hares: Glani

Right, so, hashing for those that didn't turn up is an all weather sport, that means ALL weather! Even if you can't see where you are which ways up down or underwater, as one hasher commented

"It would have been alright; if there had been a bit more wind, rain and more wet"

Anyone else know what the wet is? I'm not sure if the run was long, short, hilly, flat or I was lost but the hares did a staggering job of putting down just enough flour to keep it interesting, someone said we got to the sea? More virgins appear every week and this time they showed everyone how it's done by apparently trying to swim a loch, I think they might have taken the hash all the way to Scotland, check out TVH3.co.uk and below for definitions on Hash symbols:

Turn around

Catch your breath

 Call "On On" as loudly as possible

 L Turn Left

 S Somewhere else

ON HOME The end is nigh!

Remember, don't trust the virgins!

The start of the hash saw people reluctant to leave their cars in the onslaught, but that was ok; Stammer said she needed to practise swallowing for her course, and was then seen asking for volunteers, I think there was some context somewhere too?

Hot Rocks turned up late, ran the hash by himself and was then found in the pub asking where it went. Turns out no one knew but there was a river-road, a long short split and we weren't in the Tamar valley so why should we know?

Posh Pinny turned up on time but had a tantrum whilst driving the car, but was still gracious enough to lend the incredibly organised scribes a pen, lucky this comes out every week or we'd be short of paper too! Ernie also forgot his shoes, maybe he bought flippers instead?

Scupper Sucker has become a Granddad, congratulations and a warm Hash welcome to our newest member!

And so what's on next? Read on to find out:

The Hash Rock Out 2nd climbing event 25th November at The Barn, Milton Abbott Climbing wall. £6 for adults, £4.50 for kids, shoe and harness hire not included but winter BBQ with food included in the price! Bring your own beer and arm muscle – See any of the dingleberries for vague information

The hash quiz evening 1st December organised by the questionably dressed spike, tickets £2, bring your own booze. There will be a half time break for oranges, refreshments and local takeaways

The Twelfth night ball, on the 5th of January 2013, first hash event of the new-year, dressing up is a must, fancy or posh, you choose! Prices to be announced but expect a band, bar and other festive treats!

Finally, Hash t-shirts, see your local Hasherdabber for great rates! Actually there are no prices yet but show some more interest, give him a kick and