Next Run No: 1915
Date: 10th April 2017
Start: Norsworthy Bridge
On Down: The Burrator Inn, Dousland – HANDOVER HASH – Free Chips.....
Hares: Naughty Boy

It was the first light hash of the year. I didn't turn on my light until 20.05 – roll on the long barmy evenings. This was a good start with more hashers turning up now that they can see the dust and have less chance of being left lost on the moor somewhere. Some of the hash walkers are even threatening to start walking soon (i.e. outside - instead of just walking into the pub).

The 4 hares (yes four) laid a sneaky and clever route. My favourite section was the stream edge where I saw Chopper get both feet completely stuck in the mud. As a conscientious hasher, I laughed and left him to extricate himself alone. It was good to see the return of Adrian Taylor (Dobby), a visit from Squits and a new (to TVH3) hasher Lily (Mudsucker) - although she did a good job of looking like one of those frosted Emperor Penguins on the wildlife programs.

Later, at the Whitchurch Inn, Biff sported a moustache and we sang to everyone who had had a birthday or anniversary over the last year (or so it seemed). Dogcatcher led a horn symphony. I had to mime as I couldn't get a sound out of my horn. Footloose is fairly talented at horn playing and so she looked upon me with sympathy as she tooted away. Cannon Fodder was victorious having won at bingo earlier in the week. He has spent his winnings on tickets to Lotto and Euromillions in the belief that all good things come in threes.

This week it is committee handover time. Thanks on behalf of the hash to Queen Biff and her outgoing committee for all their hard work over the year keeping the hash running smoothly.
