Hash Quiz Special

A fine gathering of "Egg heads" at the village hall of Clearbrook last Saturday for the Annual Hash Quiz. Seven teams battled it out for the honour of the brightest brains. It was a brilliant evening of good humour and great questions all skilfully managed by the quiz masters and scorers. With the Rickeard's making a "Zoom" appearance from darkest Bere Alston. The whole evening was that of banter and fun topped off by a brilliant performance by Di and Steve in the "Carry On Screaming" re-enactment and in finding Slushes lost finger into the bargain.

This year the "Jonny Come Lately" team took the prestigious prized wooden spoon and the "Thursday Bikers" the title of "Brains of Britain".

Mondays Hash

Many thanks to "Spit Ends" for the hash text:- One of the driest hashes of late! There was concern that with spring tides the hashers might be swimming across the Tavy, but the route took them on a very scenic tour of Minnie and Peter's Garden and woods. Peter was on "Overwatch" to ensure everyone kept going!! There were many cheeky check backs, and the dust led the hashers along beside the river and high up into the woodland. Slushy was turbo-charged this evening and came flying past on a few occasions (maybe because it was his birthday). Many paused to admire the view across to Bere Ferrers and the well at the side of the trail.

Wiebke introduced an additional hash sign of a smiley to encourage everyone and ensured that the arrows were a giant size in the woods so the longs on their cross-country section would not get lost! In the pub we had our own area with good beer and huge plates of cheesy chips.

Pete Sellers was named, "Blowback" after getting the hash sign of a checkback confused.

Happy birthday was sung in fine form to Ann? And Slushy

INFO For Hares

The "On Down" in the pub is a tricky situation at the moment, in that many are not comfortable with enclosed space so please where you can when you contact the pub can you find out what external / covered spaces they have available. And can you please advise the Hare Master (Nicky) a min of two weeks in advance of your hash to include the details of Start and, On Down and food availability at the pub so that I can put it here in the mag.
