Be Seduced By The Dark Side

With the imminent release of the last part of the triple trilogy Star Wars movie, it was refreshing to hear that a number of our regular hashers have now officially gone over to the dark side. Dogcatcher, was full of glee to see that there were several hashers running without torches. Dogcatcher is playing the long game here. Hashing for 30+ years and it's only now people are starting to run in the dark. Or maybe this is a new hashing tactic. Run quietly in the dark and we could go anywhere we want. It seems that the whole country has now gone over to the Dark Side in the wake of Thursday's election result. I hear that Boris, our great (so called) leader, is changing the colour of his hair, growing a little moustache, and taking to wearing brown shirts. I will say no more.

It sounded as though the hash was good fun, despite being diverted in several places, as I saw lots of smiley happy faces at the end. I was one of the walking wounded yet again and enjoyed a pleasurable stroll up to the moor and back again with Fergie and my other injured Italian friend Gluteus Maximus (he wranks amongst the highest in Rome you know).

It was great to welcome K2 back to the hashing fold after her latest trip to Nepal. Biff was dazzled and stunned to see K2 back. So much so that she dropped her pile of Runners World magazines. Biff had been doing some Life Laundry over the previous weekend and had decided to get rid of this large number of magazines. Biff joyfully told everyone that she had had magazines for 3 years, and that Fergie had given them to her. What she didn't say was that Fergie had already had the magazines for 5 years.

There was much talk of this Year's Posh Frocks do (March 2020, at The Bedford Hotel), and it sounds as though there will be much recycling and upcycling of outfits from previous Posh Frock do's. Gannet and Scroty were discussing how they could adapt their pterodactyl outfits into Fallen Angels. I'm not quite sure how Nippy's Bollox To Brexit outfit could be adapted to Dr Who, but I'm sure he'll come up with something. Exterminate!!!

Tarts of the week: Raunchy and Chopper. Can someone remind me why they got Tarts of the Week please? I think it was something to do with this week's run - not being organised or something. My notes are vague (ie nothing written down) at best. It was nice to see that Raunchy got the tart and Chopper got the headwear. I think you were stitched up Chopper

An early question from Can't Remember & Hurricane's forthcoming quiz (1st February, at Clearbrook Village Hall) has been leaked to the Hash press office. I can exclusively reveal said question is:

(It's all gone a bit Only Connect) What do the following have in common?

An old TV set

Raunchy

The number 456123789?

And finally some Christmassy jokes just to get you in the mood.

What says, "OH,! OH! OH! - Father Christmas walking backwards

What do you call a cat that works for Father Christmas? Santa Claws

What's the best Christmas present in the world? A broken drum, you just can't beat it

And with that have a great Christmas / New Year etc.
