Dearest Cheddar. We are so sorry. We are sorrier than a sorry thing on a sorry day for screwing up a brilliantly laid hash. Personally I blame Skylark, Dribbler and Up & Under who, without any shame whatsoever, confessed to making it up rather than look for the copious and superbly placed dust. Turbo Tom and Virgin Jack seem to have been bullied into going off piste but Stephanie (7 times runner without a hash name) did her best to find the trail. It seems that Minnie, Pimp, Gnashers and her dragon were the only ones to keep to the fantastically ingenious trail but it took them so long that everyone thought they had got eaten up by the Beast of Princetown aka the Landlord of the Prince of Wales pub. In a brilliant example of "stating-the-bleedin'-obvious" 9 inch said that it was "very cold and very wet". Y' don't say! Hob Nob agreed but was shivering in his t-shirt and shorts far too much to talk. However, Immaculate Mike, who hails from the cold side of Ireland, reckoned that it was a little humid and took off a layer so as not to get sweaty. Von Trapp waxed lyrical about a chap who had bred some turkeys but instead of fattening them for the Christmas table had decided to be their mummy. Oh how I enjoyed hearing him go on, and on and on and on..... (yawn). Take my advice, if you want to keep your sanity don't mention Turkeys within earshot of Von Trapp.

Back at the pub we nearly missed out on the Hash Hush due to our esteemed GM going off in the opposite direction to the Prince of Wales. She obviously wanted to eat something other than chips. Each week I look forward with great excitement to see the next decoration on Luffly's bra. This time it was adorned with lifeboat flags, or was it the flag of St. George? I also noticed that the GM now only requires 2 glasses of Dutch courage instead of the original 4 before standing on the chair to call the rabble to order.

Virgin Jack was introduced and what a lovely chap he is. When I asked him to tell me one thing about himself that would be of interest to other hashers, he said that his ambition is to swim naked with dolphins. Happy birthday was sung to two hashers. One was Krakow (the most delicious person I know). Sorry, but did not catch the 2nd (it was 9 inch). Dog Catcher received a personalised plate for having hashed 700 times. He ran most without a torch, some without a shoe, and all without a sense of direction. Congratulations to Wobbly Knob for completing the London Marathon 28 seconds inside his target of 3 hours some 30 seconds behind James Cracknell. Obviously Wobbly Knob fancies the Olympic rower as much as I do. WK was very disappointed though. He heard that back in the day when the event was sponsored by Mars all finishers were given a Mars bar to take home. Now that it is sponsored by Virgin, he was expecting to take home a .... (No, not a train!) I spotted two members of the brat pack swigging a HOT BEVERAGE. What is the world coming to when the young drink tea in favour of binge drinking on tequila shots? Come Forward you need to take some drinking lessons from Pimp and your friend Jenny could well be hash- named Cuppa, or Teetotaller or Tea Bag or something equally as boring.

YOUR GUIDE TO TVH3 COMMITTEE – 2012

GRAND MATRESS – LUFFLY

Bearer of the Bountiful Bra. Luffly confided in me that whilst leader of the hash she intends to arrange at least one event every month, stop the practice of giving out trophies, put the run fee up to £2.00 and, shock horror, have water instead of beer at the bucket!!

JOINT MASTER (1) – SCROTUM THE FACTOTUM – AKA SCROTEY

The job of a Joint Master is to brown-nose the GM. Scrotey loves DIY and will hope to impress Luffly with some enormous erections over the next 12 months. If you are new to the hash and need to identify him, look not at his face, but at his legs – they are the most bowed legs in TVH3.

JOINT MASTER (2) – DOG CATCHER

He is the one shadowing you on the dark nights due to never having his own torch. Often brings his offspring to the run who play the role of responsible adults, ensuring that he does not get lost. Dogcatcher hashed in Saudi in the 80s and makes stained glass windows for tunnels.

SCRIBE MASTER – BUMSEN BURNER

The scribe master must ensure that the Words are produced each week. Full of enthusiasm for his new role, he appears to be allocating scribe duties to at least two hashers each week. He is one of the two Committee members that will be approaching you with a clip board/note pad in hand. Unless you enjoy telling lies and spreading gossip, avoid him like the plague. He describes himself as “not very bright, but can’t half lift heavy loads”.

HARE MASTER – MAYHEM

This is the other Committee member from whom you should hide. Unless you want to spend two days planning a run, one day setting the run and three hours in the pub listening to the complaints of the short-cutting bastards who ruined your hash by ignoring the dust. Mayhem is an ace mountain biker and is a thoroughly nice person, despite being daughter of Debacle.

HASHERDABBER – PENNY FARTING

This involves buying beer for the bucket and procuring hash T-shirts & other paraphernalia. A Cling-on with great strength to weight ratio, which is enhanced by him having a big willy. I was told this by Hornblower. Has only been hashing 6 months, but being a rubber engineer (ooh-er-missus) will fit in nicely.

HASH HORN – HORNBLOWER

See what they did there?! Many hashers have been herded to safety by following the sound of the hash horn through thick fog. Hornblower can be found at the back of the pub avidly practicing his blowing technique. Yet another Cling-on. He hangs around with a small pianist and loves to watch people pee.

CHAMBER POT (1) – DO DO

The Chamber Pots run from mid-year to mid-year and therefore sit on two different Committees. Chosen for their maturity and hashing experience they bring continuity and wisdom to the proceedings. Don't know why they chose Do Do. The most interesting fact about Do Do is that he lives in Glanni's ex-girlfriends old house.

CHAMBER POT (2) – GNASHERS

Gnashers is wise and does bring continuity but refuses to mature and enjoys a good laugh. One prank led the hash to be banned for life from the Plume of Doom!

ON SEC – PLAIN JANE

On Sec is the hardest job of all. Plain Jane will need to keep records of all members, all runs and try to make sense of the mess made by the previous On Secs. Everyone does it their way and no-one else can understand it. Plain Jane has the loveliest smile in the hash and cooks Beouf-en-crouete to die for.

HASH CASH – NIPPLE DEEP

Hash Cash is the banker. Nipple Deep says is will use the money pay the milkman and for his daughter Rachel's dinner money, and that he will be sure to pay it back by the end of the year. He is a civil servant, but if I tell you what his actual job is I will have to kill you.

HASH FLASH – DINGLEBERRY

This does not require displaying naughty bits, although I believe that Dingleberry can and will do this for a small fee. Be nice to him as he is the one with the camera. He has just had his 18th birthday and is a Cling-on instructor. He is definitely a designer victim and in his own words "cool for the ladies".

CROSS DRESSER – SPIKE
